Dear Sarah:

I am in receipt of your letter of March 6, 1969. At my next meeting with the Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel arrangements will be made for your breakfast meeting for the Southeastern Chapter. You will hear more in reference to this subject matter from me later.

I am very sorry about the indefinite plans for the building. It seems to me that you and your faculty have good ideas for a physical plant for your law school. I do hope they can be implemented soon.

In reference to your plans, I would strongly urge and recommend that you try to persuade your faculty building committee that (1) you need more carrell space than the space you indicated the faculty committee and architect are planning for; and (2) you definitely need more library growth space than the space noted in your plans you gave me at the Philadelphia meeting.

As soon as any definite commitments are made about your building, please feel free to relate with me about any subject on which I can be of help.

See you in Houston.

Very truly yours,

Al
